

The Black Velvet Band

Chorus: Her eyes they shone like the diamonds
You'd think she was queen of the land
With her hair hung over her shoulder
Tied up with a black velvet band.

In a neat little town they call Belfast
Apprenticed to trade I was bound
And many an hour's sweet happiness
I spent in that neat little town.
Till bad misfortune came o'er me
That caused me to stray from the land
Far away from my friends and relations
To follow the black velvet band.

Chorus:
When I went out strolling one evening
Not meaning to go very far
When I met with a pretty young damsel
Who was selling her trade in the bar.
When I watched, she took from a customer
And slipped it right into my hand
Then the law came and put me in prison
Bad luck to the black velvet band.

Chorus:
Next morning before judge and jury
For a trial I had to appear
And the judge, he says to me, "young fellows...
The case against you is quite clear"
And seven long years is your sentence
You're going to Van Dieman's Land
Far away from your friends and relations
To follow the black velvet band."

Chorus:
So come all you jolly young fellows
I'd have you take warning by me
Whenever you're out from the liquor, me lads,
Beware of the pretty colleens.
For they'll fill you with whiskey and porter
'Til you are not able to stand
And the very next thing that you'll know, me lads,
You're landed in Van Dieman's Land.
